

Summer ZOOM Reading & Writing Workshop

Summer ZOOM Reading & Writing Workshop is a special summer only course for developing reading, writing, and presentation skills. The group meets 3 days per week (Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays) for 1.5 hours. Each group has a limit of 4 students and is divided into similar grade levels. Sessions include sharing favorite books, reading aloud, reading comprehension exercises and discussions, and writing lessons. Each week will cover short passages, a book project, and a writing assignment covering one of the themes: narrative, expository, persuasive, or journalism.

Grades 1-4 will focus on developing story and research writing as well as technical skills. Reading aloud and clearly expressing ideas both verbally and in writing will be emphasized.

Grades 5-6 will develop narrative skills, persuasive essays, and journalism. Each student will be presenting his/her work (book reviews, reports, articles, essays) each week.

Session begins June 15th and ends August 21st. There is a choice of up to 10 weeks of classes. Students are recommended to take at least 4 consecutive weeks to gain full benefit of sessions, but can sign up for one week.

Non-MAC English members must schedule an assessment test before starting classes.
